

NOTE: If the contents of a waste container are unknown, the label will state "unknown." The ship will have the vendor sample and characterize the waste. Once the waste is properly characterized it will be labeled and offloaded under the supervision of the vendor.

* For the United States, the assigning of an EPA Identification Number is as per existing practice.